Resident Doctors on strike for third time in two months

Mysuru, Nov. 29 (RK&DM)- Accusing the Government of not keeping its promise on fulfilment of their demands, nearly 600 Resident Doctors attached to Mysore Medical College and Research Institute (MMC&RI), began an indefinite strike in K.R. Hospital premises here this morning.

The strike, as part of a State-wide demonstration, is organised under the aegis of Karnataka Association of Resident Doctors (KARD), an association of House Surgeons, Post-Graduates and Super-Speciality residents of Government Medical and Dental Colleges of Karnataka.

This is the third time that Resident Doctors are on a strike in just over a month and the second one this month (November) alone, to seek fulfilment of their demands, which chiefly included consideration of restructuring the academic fees according to 2018-19 year, payment of COVID risk allowance and timely payment of stipend to Post-Graduates and Interns, among others.

Resident Doctors on indefinite stir at K.R. Hospital premises in city this morning.

The striking doctors today said that in May 2021, when the second wave of COVID pandemic struck the country, the Karnataka Government announced COVID allowance of Rs.10,000 per month starting from the month of April, to all resident doctors of the State. But it has been more than six months since the day of announcement and yet the Government has not released the funds. This shows the blatant disregard towards the doctors who served as front-line warriors risking their own lives, they said. This apart, the academic fees was abnormally and illogically hiked from Rs. 30,000 to Rs.1,20,000, which is a whopping 400 percent hike. To make matters worse, they were made up to pay the entire sum in one go without any concession, they maintained.

Continuing, they said that following the assurance from Health and Medical Education Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar that their issues will be resolved within 10 days, they had called off their stir, which had begun in K.R. Hospital premises from Nov. 9, on the fifth day.

However, it is unfortunate that the assurance given by the Health Minister has not been fulfilled till date. To add to their woes, the resident doctors were excluded from the package of COVID-risk allowance announced recently by the Government of Karnataka, they contended.

Urging the Government to immediately fulfil their charter of demands which included payment of COVID allowance, timely payment of stipend for PGs and Interns, consideration of restructuring of academic fees according to 2018-19 academic year and expediting the process of NEET PG counselling, they warned of intensifying their indefinite stir in the coming days, if their demands, are not met.

Following the launch of the stir, medical services in MMC&RI attached K.R. Hospital, popularly known as Doddaspatre among the rural masses, took a hit with OPD services, IP treatment protocols and elective surgeries (excluding emergency services) getting affected.

The resident doctors had first launched the stir in Oct. 2021 and again on Nov. 9. Today's stir is the third one in over a month.

Lok Sabha passes bill to repeal Farm Laws

New Delhi, Nov. 29 (UNI)- The Lok Sabha today passed a Bill to repeal Farm Laws. Amid a din raised by Opposition for debate, the Bill was introduced and passed through voice vote.

The Bill was passed amid protests by the Opposition, who demanded a debate on the Bill.

The Farm Laws Repeal Bill, 2021, was introduced by Union Agriculture Minister Narendra Tomar, as the House met at 12 noon, after witnessing an adjournment on Farm Laws issue after the Winter Session began.

Several Opposition MPs were standing on their seats, and some trooped close to the Speaker's podium as well.

As MPs raised demands for a debate, Congress leader in Lok Sabha Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury showed a copy of the Constitution and said debates have been held on repeal bills earlier as well.

Speaker Om Birla, however, said he would allow a debate only if the House was in order.

"You wanted the bills repealed. I will allow debate only if the House is in order," Birla said.

In the din, Opposition MPs were heard mentioning the deaths during farmers' agitation, while MPs from YSRCP displayed placards demanding national food grains procurement policy.

The Bill was passed through voice vote amid the din. The Bill is also expected to be taken up in Rajya Sabha on the day.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

PRAPTA VAKYA: All worldly knowledge and other mundane knowledge and so-called wisdom have little value. Such knowledge is known as 'prapta vakya', that is, vakya coming from, coming through, the media of different worldly persons, worldly expressions. In old geography books, you will find that Allahabad was the capital of Uttar Pradesh. In later books you will find that Lucknow is the capital of the same State. And it may be different in the future. So, such is the condition of prapta vakya. It is relative and subject to change. Bhaktas take it with a grain of salt. But intellectuals constantly fight amongst themselves on the basis of their bookish knowledge. For a bhakta, only 'apta vakya' has value. What comes from Param Purush is apta vakya. When the devotee is able to hear, feel, realise and understand the will of Param Purush through having developed a relationship of love with Him, it is called apta vakya. As devotees, we need to follow only apta vakya, and our fundamental basis should be prapatti — everything happens as per His desire and not a single blade of grass can move without His permission.

Artist creates most intricate food carvings

Tokyo: Armed with mountains of patience and a Xacto knife, Japanese artist Gaku turns all kinds of fruits and vegetables into ephemeral works of art. Inspired by the Japanese traditional food carving art mukimono, Gaku takes fruits or vegetables from the grocery store and carves them into a variety of intriguing patterns, from geometrical designs to traditional motifs and symbols and even animal models.

But apart from the skill and patience required to create these stunning food carvings, the most impressive thing about Gaku is his speed, as many times the artistic process is a race against time to make sure that oxidation doesn't ruin his artwork. Weh working on apples or other produce that tends to oxidize quickly, he has to finish his designs in just a few minutes and still have time to photograph them.

Feed on dead flesh, produce sweet honey

San Jose: While majority of bee species rely on the pollen and nectar of flowers to make honey, a few so-called "vulture bees" have evolved to feast on carrion (decaying dead flesh), just like vultures or hyenas and still produce sweet honey.

A few decades ago, entomologists made the rather staggering discovery that deep in the rainforests of Costa Rica they found three bee species that seemed to prefer dead flesh to flowers. In a recently-published study, scientists revealed that these 'vulture bees' had gut bacteria that appeared to thrive in acidic environments. Another surprising discovery was that, despite their unusual diet, the vulture bees still produced sweet honey.

Shoddy work on a busy road

Sir,

About a month back a portion of the ever busy Mysuru-Madikeri Highway, opposite Ganapathy Temple at Hinkal caved in, may be due to the bad road work executed earlier.

Instead of immediately doing a permanent road repair work, the authorities concerned preferred to dump a tractor load of mud on the road. This action resulted in a number of accidents as the dumped mud was uneven and not visible during night hours.

Later, instead of rectifying the fault and making this stretch of the road motorable, the authorities placed a barricade in front of this mud hump.

I am unable to understand the logic of the authorities concerned in blocking one of the busy main roads like this and causing perennial traffic jam at this stretch.

Government servants should be pro-tax-payers and not anti-tax-payers by opting to do such shoddy, irresponsible and temporary works on busy roads.

Not clear if Omicron more transmissible, causes more severe disease: WHO

Geneva, Nov. 29 (UNI/Xinhua)- It is not yet clear whether the Omicron COVID-19 variant is more transmissible, or causes more severe disease compared to other variants including Delta, the World Health Organisation (WHO) said.

WHO, on Sunday said that it's not yet clear whether Omicron is more easily spread from person to person compared to other variants, even though the number of people testing positive has risen in South Africa where this variant was involved.

It's also not yet clear whether Omicron causes more severe disease, but preliminary data suggests that there are increasing rates of hospitalisation in South Africa, which however may be due to increasing overall numbers of people becoming infected.

WHO confirmed that there is currently no information to suggest that symptoms associated with Omicron are different from those from other variants, as understanding the level of severity of the Omicron variant will take days to several weeks.

All variants of COVID-19, including the Delta variant that is currently dominant worldwide, can cause severe disease or death, in particular for the most vulnerable people, and thus prevention is always key.

However, WHO said preliminary evidence suggests there may be an increased risk of reinfection with Omicron, but information is limited. More information on this will become available in the coming days and weeks.

It added that current PCR tests continue to detect Omicron, while further studies are still going on to understand how the Omicron variant will impact on available vaccines and treatments to COVID-19.

Construction sector will create more jobs than agri sector: MP Pratap Simha

- 10-lane Highway to be completed before Dasara-2022
- Mysore Airport runway will be expanded soon

Mysuru, Nov. 29 (GA&KS)- In the present scenario, construction sector will create more jobs than agricultural sector, opined Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha.

He was speaking at 'Builders Day' celebrations with the theme "Role of Construction in Nation-building" organised by Builders Association of India (BAI), Mysore Centre at MBCT auditorium in Vishveshwaranagar here on Saturday.

The MP said that he may be the only politician in the State who does not have any connection with real estate and added that from a Gram Panchayat member to almost all politicians have indulged in real estate business.

Pointing out that farmers are called as the backbone of the country, but construction sector was providing more jobs than agriculture sector, Simha urged the builders to work in such a way that their works would be remembered for long.

Stating that a few builders were selling one house to many people and cheating them, he said that he had caught one such builder and had handed him over to the Police. The MP urged the builders to keep vigil over such builders and prevent such frauds from taking place as public would stop believing in them.

Speaking about the ongoing 10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway works, the MP said that the 10-lane Highway would be ready by next year's Dasara and would be thrown open for traffic. Pointing out that this is the biggest project in the country, he said that the entire cost of the project is borne by the Centre and no funds have been taken from the State Government.

Stating that the expansion of the Mysore Airport runway would be taken up soon, the MP said that at present flights to prominent places has commenced and assured that more flights to other places will start once the runway is expanded.

Greed for property: Nephew takes thumb impression of dead woman on blank papers

- Niece questions him; videographs the incident
- Case registered at Vidyaranyapuram Police Station

Mysuru, Nov. 29- An inhuman incident of relatives taking the thumb impression of a dead woman on blank document papers to claim her property has been reported at Srirampura in city recently.

Ironically, a woman, who captured the video of the relatives taking the thumb impression of the dead woman and questioned them, was issued a warning.

The video, which has now gone viral on social media, shows a few people getting the thumb impression of the dead woman on blank papers and one of them even going to the extent of saying "let her videograph it" without expressing fear of being recognised.

It is learnt that the incident took place a few days ago in Srirampura. The dead woman is said to have owned about 14 acre land worth crores of rupees and does not have husband or children except for two elder sisters and a younger brother.

The son of one of the dead woman's sisters, who claimed that he was taking care of the dead woman, reportedly took the thumb impression of the dead woman on blank papers in front of other relatives. Meanwhile, the daughter of another sister of the dead woman, who questioned the nephew (of the dead woman) for taking the thumb impression of the dead woman besides making a video of it, told him to give back the papers, but he is said to have walked out of the house saying "do what you want" and walked into the neighbour's house, who is said to be a lawyer.

The video of the nephew and other family members taking the thumb impression of the dead woman and a few relatives telling the girl who had made the video that she has nothing to do with it has gone viral on social media.

A case has been registered at Vidyaranyapuram Police Station in this regard.

Man allegedly rapes minor sister; makes her pregnant

Mysuru, Nov. 29- A man allegedly raping his own sister and making her pregnant has taken place at Giridarshini Layout in city.

As the 17-year-old girl was orphaned, she was staying with her brothers and was pursuing her diploma course. She was allegedly raped by her brother and had become pregnant but was unaware of the pregnancy. As she began to suffer from stomach ache, she had gone to K.R. Hospital to avail treatment and it was there she came to know that she was pregnant.

As the girl was minor, lady doctors counselled her and when the doctors cleverly asked her about the person responsible for her condition, the girl revealed about it and the doctors after coming to know that her own brother had raped her and made her pregnant, sent a memo to Alanahalli Police Station.

The Police, based on the memo, arrested the girl's brother and have registered a case under Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act. The accused was produced before a Court, which remanded him to judicial custody.

The girl's father left the family a few years ago and the girl was with her mother, two elder sisters and two elder brothers in the house at Giridarshini Layout. Her mother died a couple of years back.

After her sisters got married and left for their husbands' place, the girl was left under the custody of her two elder brothers and was pursuing her diploma course.

It is learnt that one of her brothers, who is a drunkard, was repeatedly raping her.

Helpless and unable to disclose her ordeal with anyone, the girl had remained silent.

Gang Rape at Chamundi Foothill

1,499 pages charge-sheet submitted against six accused to Court

Mysuru, Nov. 29- Devaraja Sub-Division Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP) M.N. Shashidhar has submitted a 1,499 pages charge-sheet against six accused to the Court, who had gang raped a girl student at the foot of Chamundi Hill near Lalithadripura in August this year. Of the seven accused arrested by the Police in this connection, the name of one of the accused has been left out.

The Police had registered cases against the accused under IPC Section 397, 376B, 120B, 334, 325 and 326 and the First Information Report (FIR) was submitted to the JMFC Court.

Accordingly, the charge-sheet was also submitted to the JMFC Court but as the case comes under the Sessions Court, the case has been transferred to the Sessions Court, where the hearing will take place. Special Public Prosecutor Sudeep Bangera has been appointed to argue in favour of the Government.

It may be recalled that on Aug. 24 evening, when the girl student and her male friend were sitting at the foot of Chamundi Hill near Lalithadripura, a group of miscreants, who came to the spot, assaulted the youth and had gang raped the girl student.

The girl was admitted to a private hospital in city and a complaint was lodged at Alanahalli Police Station. This incident had caused furore in the State, which even prompted Home Minister Araga Jnanendra, Leader of the Opposition Siddharamaiah and Women's Commission Chairperson to visit the crime spot.

As the case was taken seriously, Additional Director General of Police (ADGP) - Law & Order visited Mysuru and held meeting with the Police officials. Under the guidance of IGP (Southern Range) and City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, a special Police team, comprising Police officers and staff, led by Devaraja Sub-Division ACP M.N. Shashidhar was formed.

The Special Police team, which took up the investigation, arrested seven Tamil Nadu-based persons involved in the gang rape within a few days.

These dogs put noses to work saving wildlife

Jhansi - German Shepherd

Margi - Mudhol Hound

Rana - German Shepherd

Mysuru, Nov. 29 (MTY&BCT)- The fight against wildlife crime got a further boost with two young wildlife sniffer dogs, also known as 'super sniffers' joining the Bandipur Tiger Reserve and Sri Biligiri Ranganathaswamy Tiger Reserve, both in Chamarajanagar district after completing a seven-month-long training course.

The dogs are Margi, a Mudhol Hound, that has landed at Bandipur after its rigorous training at the Dog Training Centre in the premises of Police Training School at Adugodi in Bengaluru and Jhansi, a German Shepherd, has been trained at Chandigarh by the Indo-Tibetan Border Police.

The training has been carefully designed to accommodate both basic obedience and detection skills specifically to combat the illegal wildlife trade. Basically, at Adugodi, two types of training are provided — bomb detection and scent training. Margi was predominantly trained in scent.

This is the first time Mudhol Hounds have been introduced in the Karnataka Forest Department. They have been chosen for its aggression and as they are a local breed from Bagalkot.

The dogs were taught to detect tiger and leopard skin, elephant tusk, skin and antlers of spotted deer and Sambar.

Margi being handled by Forest Watchers Mahesh and Nagesh.

The trainers used small-sized wildlife articles to accustom the dogs to find targets with low scent concentration in these complex environments.

BROUGHT FROM BAGALKOT AS PUPPIES

In fact, Margi was brought to Bandipur along with Rakhi when they were just three-month-old pups. Both were taken to Adugodi and provided training for seven months. While Rakhi was rejected due to an impediment on its foot, Margi successfully completed its training. Rakhi has not, however, been abandoned. The canine is being taken care of at Bandipur.

Wildlife sniffer dogs have repeatedly proved their merit in fighting against wildlife crime. Take the legendary Rana for example. Rana has been stationed at Bandipur Tiger Reserve and has played a key role in many such operations and is a nightmare to poachers.

Rana had caught them at their homes by following their scent from the jungles. It has solved many sandalwood smuggling cases and had tracked those who had escaped with the claws of Prince, a popular male tiger of Bandipur. Rana is retiring this month and Margi will replace him.

EXTENSIVE TRAINING

Many cases of wildlife seizures and poaching have helped in arrests of many criminals and in the recovery of body parts including skins and bones of tiger, leopard, bear bile, ivory, star tortoise, deer antlers, skins and meat, live birds, porcupine, pangolin scales, snares, traps and weapons.

Margi is being handled by Forest Watchers Mahesh and Nagesh. Mahesh has experience of handling canines since 2016. Margi is at present undergoing training at Bandipur and is getting acclimatised with the area.

Jhansi was trained at Chandigarh by the Indo-Tibetan Border Police and the exercise was supported by Traffic India. Forest Guard Basavaraj and Forest Watcher Siddharamanna have been trained to handle it. Jhansi will be attached to the Punjur Range and will be further trained to detect wildlife cases.

Accidental meeting of a saintly person, Nagaraja Sharma at Amarkantak catapults the author from disenchantment into a world giving meaning to life. Author becomes a hunter and partaker of 'only Good News'.

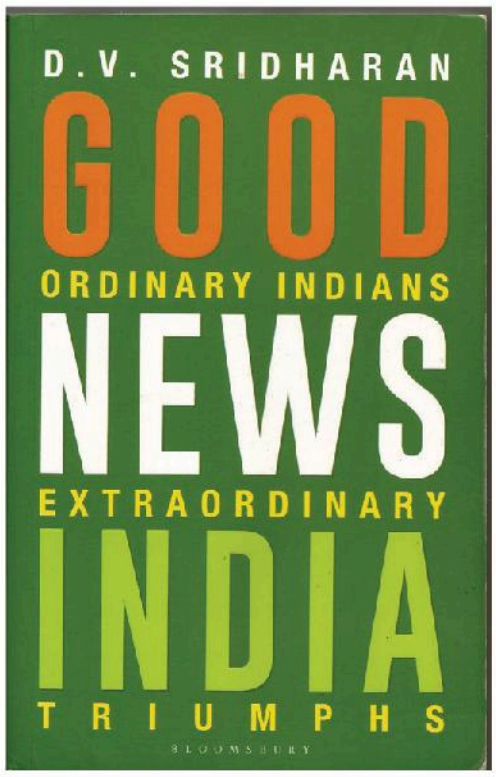
Y2K scare had given birth to a new channel of communication, the internet . Author being a trained engineer, lapped up internet. Despite financial crunch the author, living on Rs.2,000 a month, buys an expensive Kodak DC 215 camera costing Rs.33,000 and travels around the country in search of positive stories of unsung heroes. And Good News India [GNI] social networking channel was born.

This self-appointed news hound sets certain ground rules for himself — 1. No news on cricket, movies or politics, 2. He would publish nothing that he did not personally verify, 3. He would seek no sponsors or investors, would drive it all with his money. 4. He must always give full contact details, including driving directions wherever necessary. The resultant 25 true stories of real but unsung heroes of India is presented in this book. Every story narrated in this book is wholesome and very inspiring.

Stories start with Anna Hazare, who was a retired army truck driver but went on to transform a draught struck very poor Ralegan Siddi village into a village of holistic development. Abdul Kareem's successful conversion of five acres of 'barren rock land with a pathetic well' into lush garden of variety of plants and trees leading to increased water table all around.

A similar story of Cherkady Ramachandra Rao of Brahmavar is narrated in a very illuminating way. There are stories of Debal Dev's obsession to protect indigenous varieties of seeds at great personal sacrifice and costs and Manibhai Desai's NGO, Bharatiya Agro Industries Foundation [BAIF] and co-operative banking which revolutionised Urulikanchan into a model village attracting a lot of investments. Story of Bishnois of Rajasthan tells about their extraordinary love and commitment for environment and animals. There is also reference to Salman Khan and his Black Buck hunting incident.

There is a story of Girish Bharadwaj, an engineer who was accidentally drawn into building village bridges, which was never his specialisation! Bharadwaj self-learnt building bridges technology and built them at very low costs rendering yeomen service to the villages all round the country.



Title: Good News India: Ordinary Indians, Extraordinary Triumphs
Author: D.V. Sridharan
Year: 2021
Pages: 273+
Price: Rs.320
Publisher: Bloomsbury India, New Delhi

Story of Tree Thimmakka and Chikkanna is about persons who raised hundreds of tree in place of the child they could not have. Story titled A Daughter Returns is about one Anuradha who grew up in plush environs, but whose forefather was an indentured labourer in Mauritius in 1871, and her ProjectWhy in Delhi's Giri Nagar slums; Clothier to the Poor story narrates the underbelly of Delhi during winter and how young journalist couple, Anshu and Meenakshi, started the NGO Goonj to cloth the hapless poor by recycling tons of old clothes donated by the compassionate citizens.

The arrangement of the book is quite interesting and innovative. It is partly auto-biographical and partly empirical. Author has very cleverly sandwiched his 25 Real Heroes stories between his two autographical sketches. Sridharan starts with Prologues in six parts providing the background to the launch of Good News India [GNI]. After the captivating stories of real heroes he re-links and completes his life experiences in Epilogue titled Revisiting an Ignored Message.

Sridharan has a mesmerising style of storytelling which makes the book very captivating. The fact that many of these heroes became well-known only after the author had first published them on his news channel GoodNewsIndia, and two of them — Girish Bharadwaj and Thimmakka — thereafter were honoured with the Padma Shri Award, is a commendable contribution indeed.

Place a bowl of rock salt at four corners of the room which is said to clear any airborne virus and bacteria and also absorb excess moisture in air

The focus on health by many came into force only during the pandemic. Wellness and health was always taken for granted. No amount of wealth, prosperity or career luck could replace basic wellness and health — especially during pandemic this became clearer.

The place of dwelling/ work and the environment has a deep connect with the wellness of the occupants and in turn their prosperity. Fine-tuning the home to make it vibrant and supportive is the key to overcome illness in a home.

According to a Harvard Business School survey, 94% of service professionals put in 50+ hours a week. And while some people claim long hours are necessary, study after study shows that when we lose work life balance, everyone suffers the consequences. A life of wellness starts with the basics. Wellness is more than not being sick. It is a balance of body, mind and spirit. Everyone's balancing points are unique and they constantly shift over time, which is why wellness is a lifelong journey.

Put a baby shark in a gold fishbowl, it grows 8 inches and the same baby shark can grow 8 feet or more when put in the ocean. In short, our environment and place where we live has a strong influence on our health and wealth.

There are many ways one can fine-tune the place of dwelling or work based on Vaastu and Feng Shui principles. However, some simple methods can be adapted to mitigate illness and bring in wellness. A building which causes illness to the occupants is referred to as Sick Building Syndrome. Such syndromes in work place reduces work efficiency of occupants and increases absenteeism at work. A 1984 WHO report indicated 30% new and remodelled buildings worldwide may be linked to symptoms of Sick Building Syndrome.

The effect of geopathic stress, geo magnetic fields and radiation also needs to be taken into account apart from the principles of Vaastu and Feng Shui to work towards countering the ill-effects.

Below are few simple tips to cleanse the space and surroundings and activate positive vibes and wellness.

• Clean the home with Rock Salt - Pink rock salt improve the indoor environment. Salt crystals eliminates negative energy and cleanses the space.

• Place a bowl of rock salt at four corners of the room which is said to clear any airborne virus and bacteria and also absorb excess moisture in air.

• Place a bowl of salt near the persons bed who's ill to generate good energy.

• Burn camphor at least once a week as this is said to remove negative energies, you can blend neem/ bay leaves/ sage or lemongrass with camphor which can effectively purify the air too.

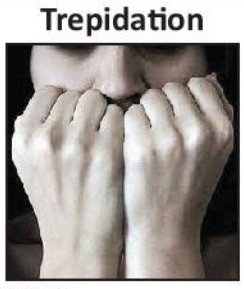
WORD OF THE DAY

Trepidation



Pronunciation: trep-uh-DAY-shun.
Meaning: Trepidation is a feeling of fear that causes hesitation because you think that something bad or unpleasant is going to happen.
Origin: If you've ever trembled with fright, you know something of both the sensation and etymology of trepidation. The word comes from the Latin verb trepidare, which means "to tremble." Early meanings of trepidation, such as "tremulous motion" or "tremor," reflect that origin; those are followed by the word's sense of "apprehension."
Example: "The current market is great for employment. There was a lot of trepidation for companies in 2020. People wanted to see how things would work out and were stalling." — Lisa Noble

Meaning: 'Raincheck' or 'Rain Check' is used to indicate that you cannot accept an invitation now, but that you'd like to do the same activity sometime in the future.
Origin: Baseball games were sometimes cancelled on account of rain in the days before modern ballparks. When this happened, ticket holders were given a new ticket, called a rain check, to use to attend another game in the future. The practice started in the 1880s.
Example: "I'm too busy to go out to dinner; I'll have to take a raincheck."
